

The Rules of Z

(Keep This Card)

CREED

We respect all life which the Creator has designed for this Earth. We believe in the principles of non-violence and the No More Blood movement. Blood is the water of creation. We do not pour it into the streets. We do not wash the streets with tears. Blood is sacred to life. We honor life with our best efforts for family and friends to thrive. In Mexico and all the nations, the people are community of family and friends. Violence disrespects life and breaks community. Violence is the weapon of evil persons. The Zs exist to disarm evil, that community might thrive. The weapons of the Zs are cleverness, honesty, communication, and cleanness in body and spirit. The goals of the Zs are abolition of ignorance, and opportunity in work and education for all people.

THE EIGHT RULES

- We are honest in all matters first, with ourselves as well as others. We allow dishonesty no space by withholding relevant information.
- We respect all people, including the infirm, the weak, the young, the ancients, and the disadvantaged. We give respect by providing opportunity. We show respect through courtesy and equal treatment of all persons.
- We are fair in all business dealings.

Wetta

- We sharpen our minds through daily study. We exercise our brains through tests, puzzles and role play with other Zs. We stay abreast of technology in the use of social media and means of communication.
- We keep our bodies in top physical condition through the Z training and exercise programs. We strive for excellence in martial arts and sports of agility that include climbing, jumping, running, and balance.
- We maintain joy in our lives through positive thinking, mutual support and lifelong learning .
- We serve community through collaborative programs of public service, including vigilance and maintaining the peace, supporting official police and military operations. We preserve life and the safety of citizens through means of self-defense, without the use of firearms.
- We attend all Z Chapter meetings called by Z leadership. We participate in the weekly Rule of Z small group meetings.
